College Theater Features Comedy "Old Acquaintance" On Nov 7-8

By Betty McWhorter

"All theories of what a good play is, or how a good play should be written are futile. A good play which when acted upon the boards, makes an audience interested and pleased. A play that fails in this is a bad play..." Maurice Baring. College Theater will present "Old Acquaintance", a modern comedy in three acts on November 7-8 at 8:30 in Russell Auditorium.

John Van Druten has been noted for his handling of women characters. This comedy by him is a study of three women and their reaction to a particular situation involving one man. Two of the three women are novelists and at the time of the original production it was rumored that they had their prototypes in real life. The "cat fight" was also drawn from something which actually occurred.

Tickets for the play and season tickets will be on sale at the box office. Don't forget — November 7-8, 8:30 p. m., in Russell Auditorium.

THEATRE CAST AT WORK

Georgia Power Shows Operation Of Atomic Range In Chapel Hall

Would you like to see bacon fry in 60 seconds? Potatoes bake in 10 minutes? Or turkey in 30 minutes? The electronic range bakes, broils and roasts in a matter of minutes through a medium of high frequency microwaves.

A demonstration of this amazing invention is in the home economics building or in Chapel Hall on Tuesday, November 19, through the courtesy of Georgia Power and Light Company.

This manner of cooking is ideal for cafeterias, Bar-B-Q grills, and quick-order restaurants and it is estimated by 1960, there will be 100,000 units in the homes.

"Classes or students are cordially invited to come by and see how you will be cooking in the future", announces Mrs. Ann Smith, head of the department.

McCaffrey Views News Foreign And Domestic

By Edith Bishop

Washington correspondent, Joseph F. McCaffrey will speak in chapel November 11 on the subject, "A Look at Some of the Problems Ahead."

In his talk the veteran radio and television reporter will appraise both domestic and foreign problems confronting this country.

"The immediate years ahead present a grave challenge to the people and their government", Mr. McCaffrey believes. He continues, "We are in trouble abroad and we are facing an economic adjustment here at home."

Mr. McCaffrey, a long time political observer, will also try to look ahead in politics to the November 1958 Congressional elections and also to the all important 1960 Presidential Contest.

GSCW Observes American Art Week

American Art Week will be observed November 1-7. Since the Georgia Chapter of the American Artists Professional League is temporarily inactive this year, there will be no official participation in American Art Week over the state. However, there will be various activities sponsored by the Art Department on the Campus.

This year each dormitory is participating in Art week. A committee from each dormitory has been appointed to select a favorite print for the dormitory. In Beeson, Sarah Howell, Pat Garrett, and Nancy Kelly chose "Still Life" by Braque. Bell Hall will exhibit "Abstract" by Ben Nicholson, chosen by Henri Neil Andrews, Jean Weston, and Carolyn Hughes. "Palomino Mother" by Millard Sheets, chosen by Barbara Katzenbrink, Christine Chandler, and Elice Lavender, will be exhibited in Ennis Hall. Emily Carter and Patricia Bowles of Sanford Hall chose "Mile Lacaux" by Renoir. Terrell B&C will exhibit "On The Terrace" by Renoir, chosen by Gwen Lee, Pat Patrillo, and Doris Williams. Evelyn Meacham and Gena Thompson chose "Little Margot" by Renoir for Terrell A. These prints will be placed on the bulletin board during Art Week. Notations concerning both the print and the artist were compiled mainly by Alice Gilmore and Astra Steinhardt, art students.

Throughout the week the Student Union will exhibit prints and crafts. Part of the week the bulletin board will feature works of noted artists. The Lettering class will emphasize "Litter Bug" and the care of the buildings and campus with posters which will be placed around the campus. The bulletin board in the Student Union will be arranged with material left by "Litter Bugs" on the campus.

On Tuesday, November 5, between 3:00 and 4:30 art students will give a demonstration of various art activities. On the following day, Wednesday, the students and faculty are invited to visit Sanford Hall, the newly decorated and renovated Senior dormitory. Mrs. Strickland and the Seniors have invited the students and faculty to visit during 4 and 6 p. m.

The Home Economics Building will also emphasize American Art Week. The new furniture, designed by outstanding designers, represents American Art.

During the week the library will display some of the latest books concerning art.

Mr. Ralph Jackson of Atlanta, the State Chairman of last year's Artists League, writes that he is especially sorry not to have a state-wide participation since Georgia "made such a notable showing last year, gaining second place position over the nation." Georgia has won second place before last year.

GSCW Honors Rotary Conclave on Nov. 8 & 9

By Sue Jackson

Each year it is customary to hold a Conclave for all the Rotary students in Georgia here in Milledgeville.

The Rotary students are students from all over the world who have received a scholarship from the Rotary Clubs of Georgia. The only Rotary Scholarship Student on our campus is Siri Sannes from Norway.

The Rotary Conclave this year will meet November 8th and 9th. The students will start arriving in the afternoon of the 8th and will remain until Sunday morning. While here they will be housed in dormitories of G. S. C. W.

Although Siri Sannes is the only Rotary Scholarship Student on campus, all foreign students are invited to attend the Conclave.

Freshman Class Elects Priscilla Jones President

Freshmen elections were held Tuesday, November 29 with 187 freshmen turning out to vote. There were run-overs in every office since such a large number of girls were nominated.

C. G. A. Elects Faculty Advisor For this Year

College Government Association recently elected Miss Lucy C. Robinson, Assistant Professor of Business Education, faculty advisor for this year. C. G. A. thinks it has made an excellent choice, as Miss Robinson has long been interested in students and student activities. In this capacity she will serve as an advisor at Student Council meetings and on matters pertaining to its activities.

Proof of her outstanding qualities is the fact that Miss Robinson is one of the 20,000 women who has recently been selected to appear in "Who's Who Among American Women," a publication sponsored jointly by the Archives of Radcliffe College and the editorial board of "Who's Who in America."

Senior Girls Represent Colonnade and Spectrum in College Press Meet

Four seniors will represent GSCW at the annual Associated Collegiate Press Conference, which is being held in New York City, November 7-9. Betty Jean Sadler, Editor of The Colonnade; Mickey Young, Editor of the Spectrum; Iona Johns, Business Manager of The Colonnade; and Barbara Richardson, Business Manager of the Spectrum will attend the conference. These students will leave Atlanta by plane November 7 and will return November 9.

This conference is held primarily for the exchanging of ideas by Editors and Business Managers of College Newspapers and Yearbooks throughout the United States. Panel discussions cover such topics as Treatment of Sensitive News, Pictures that sell Ads, how yearbooks are sold on large and small campuses, Freedom and Responsibility, The Activity Fee, Politics and the College Press, Copy of Interest to Women, The Newspaper and the Administration, and many other phases of interest to Newspaper and Yearbook staffs. The panels included in the program are planned to cover all editorial and business phases of the Newspaper and Yearbook.

Campus publications will certainly benefit from association with some 800 other students engaged in college publishing.

CGA Elects Secretary

Henrietta Moody, a sophomore from Newnan was elected corresponding secretary after a close election by the student body at GSCW.

Henrietta hopes to work in adolescent psychology after getting a masters degree. Of course, no definite plans are made but she may choose Columbia University.

Henrietta has a special interest in languages, particularly Spanish. She is a member of IRC. Her favorite pastime could be dancing.

Priscilla Jones from Blakely will lead the 1961 class as president. Priscilla plans to major in home economics. Her hobbies include singing and playing the piano. Priscilla's home this year while at Jessie is in Terrell B, room 603. Incidentally, did you know that she is a national celebrity? She is a good cook.

The vice president for the freshman class is a runover between Suzanne Pharr and Ann Robinson. Suzanne Pharr of Lawrenceville, nicknamed "Jagg", will major in psychology during her later days at Jessie. Suzanne's home is in Terrell A, room 104.

Ann Robinson from Atlanta is the other candidate for runover in the vice presidential election. Ann lives on 2nd floor Terrell B & C. At the present she is undecided about her major field.

Marcia Perry, or "Impy" as she prefers, will serve as secretary for the Irish class this year. Marcia attended Miller High school where she was very active in many activities. She plans to major in math and can be found most of the time in Terrell B, room 509.

Frances Burke from Rome wants to be an elementary education teacher. Frances has been elected to the all-important position as treasurer of her class. Since coming to GSCW Frances has joined the modern dance club. While attending school at Pepperell High she was active in many and various campus activities.

Representative to Honor Council this year will be Jane Chance from Hapeville. Jane graduated from Hapeville High where she was president of the Beta Club and a Member of the Modern Dance Club. Jane has joined the A Cappella Choir here and plans to major in math.

Alice Ann Rayfield will be this class's representative to C G A. Alice Ann is from Decatur and wants to major in Home Economics. While attending Decatur High she was active in the Beta Club, Student Council and Pep Club.

Anne Smith from Athens has been elected to represent the freshmen class in Judiciary. Anne attended Athens High School and wants to major in physical education at GSCW.

Barn Dance Draws Foreign Students

Next Saturday night, November 9, will once again be time for the annual Scholarship Barn Dance. The sound of gay square dance music will echo from the gym.

This year for the first time, the barn dance is being sponsored by the three major organizations on campus. The proceeds from this dance along with those from the campus book store are used to provide a scholarship for a foreign student on our campus. This year our foreign student is Vera Imeri. Incidentally, Vera is from Budapest and can talk fluently about situations in her country.

One of the many attractions of the dance will be the entertainment provided by the deputation of foreign students from other colleges.

Shoe Shine

There is definitely something in the air besides the flu germs on campus. It is an intangible spirit that is growing and developing between the sister classes Rat day, in all its real glory, truly united the Frosh and Juniors. This feeling of unity will grow even deeper as the sophomores and seniors, and freshmen and juniors begin their annual competition for the prized possession, The Golden Slipper.

Golden Slipper is not only a competitive event. The purpose of the Golden Slipper contest is to promote class spirit, to stimulate good sportsmanship and to encourage the development of dramatic material. Plans for this year's Golden Slipper contest are already underway. The actual work will begin within the next two weeks. The freshmen who have never been part of a "Golden Slipper" will have an experience never to be forgotten.

Now is the time to get some of our outstanding class assignments begun, so when the time for Golden Slipper arrives we will have time to really put ourselves into it. The end of the quarter is near, and we sometimes have a tendency to put our term papers and files off until the quarter is almost over. If we are to give our best to Golden Slipper, we must be able to do so without worrying whether we will have the time to do everything that is expected of us. Begin now to think about budgeting your time.

When Golden Slipper arrives, let's be ready for it. This year should be the greatest yet. B. J. S.

Have You Ever Noticed?

Have you ever noticed how polite we are to strangers or people we have just met? When you think about it, it seems rather funny that we should be so careful with those we are seldom around. Our true nature never comes out around them. It is those people who love us and live with us that are exposed to impolite side of our personality.

When we are in a depressed or blue mood and don't feel like being particularly nice who sees us then? Those closest to us, naturally. Roommates, suitmates, closest friends, and FAMILY have to put up with us then. A great man once said that if people were as polite to those they live with as they are to outsiders everyone would get along better.

If we would take the time to be extra polite and nice to those people that care about and are interested in us it would probably pay off with big dividends, and we would be happier individuals. These people that we need to be more polite to are the ones that will stick by us when we need them. A. G.

Freedom of Choice

This country was primarily founded for the sake of religious freedom. Today, this precious freedom is often taken for granted, or not exercised at all.

Many of the peoples of the world today would give their lives for the right to worship where and how their convictions guided them. We boast of our rights, and when we don't exercise them we are discarding the work being done around the free world toward this freedom of expression.

Here at GSCW, our freedom of religion is well represented by taps, vespers and other programs. Almost every avenue of faith is provided for on or near our campus. Like so many other opportunities, they are waiting to be made useful in our lives.

Religion is a personal matter that can be determined only by personal conviction. No one can make another person attend church or participate in any beneficial organization, they can only encourage participation. Each one of us should show our gratitude for being free and having these rights by exercising them.

Let the world know that the free way is the only way. W. T.

Do We Need It?

College study is at a point of life when you study with the goal of learning either because you want to or know you must do so to meet special requirements.

Therefore courses meeting these needs are pursued. Even when you're a college senior, you must see a need before you can apply book knowledge. This may be a personality need, a skill need of just a blank page in your store house of knowledge.

I have heard so many repeat this statement until I realize the seriousness of this attitude. "I need one or two more courses of concrete subject matter much more than I need seven education courses. I don't see any point in putting my all in learning how to teach when I need to be learning subject matter as a home base. Frankly, I feel I'm taking a "dry" education course."

To take care of lack of knowledge of subject matter, you might try to envelope subject matter with the art of teaching that the education field endorses. Too, you can learn new material on your own that will not be so valuable if you do not know how to impart it to others. Results in your career in teaching depends on your present decisions. B. J.

JESSIES

CAMPUS COMEDY

"There's a Man in my room. Lock the Doors!"

"A" is For Alibi

This is mid-year time—to be followed, in all likelihood by a period of student complaints and excuses. These examples collected from past years come under the head of "Why My Grade Should Be Raised."

There must be a mistake somewhere.

Pat Hyder

I know many members of my class who do not work as hard as I do and who get a better grade. I am recognized among my classmates as a good student. I may ask you one of them. I was not well at the time of the examination. This mark grieved my mother (or father) whose pride I am. This is the only course in which I received a poor grade. I have studied this subject from the broad philosophical viewpoint and, therefore, I was unable to answer your technical catch questions.

The questions were ambiguous and, therefore, my answers should be graded according to the reasonable interpretations that I made of your questions.

The examination was unfair and unfairly distributed over the subject.

I hate to work; therefore I should be given a break.

My mind always goes blank on an examination.

I would have done much better if I had taken the other examination you gave to the student next to me.

Conditions in the room were not conducive to concentration.

—Irving Settel and Hank Fallon.

Toni Tells

By Toni Flynn

This is the official opening of a very unofficial column. I hope to be able to provide you with something to talk about after each issue of the paper—that is, if you aren't the topic of conversation yourself.

For instance, I hear via the grapevine that two Beeson girls had exciting dates several nights ago. How about it, Pat H. and Lori C.?

It has also been brought to my attention that Myra Cross got an official welcome home the first weekend she went. Can you pick up Channel 13 on that portable yet, Myra?

Barbara Catenbrink has just celebrated her first anniversary. A dozen white and pink carnations marked the memorable occasion.

If you live in Terrell A. and Proper and the phone rings, don't bother to answer it—Kay Moore will. She and the long distance operators are becoming good friends.

What are these rumors concerning Middle Georgia's invasion of Jessie. Can you tell us about it, Sondra M. and Margaret M.?

Mary Dodson has been seeing too many movies lately. Only last week she was trying to play the role of the "Two Faces of Patti Holiday."

We all know what an angel Cynthia C. is, but it was not until this past weekend that she got her wings.

Pat Harris has been blushing for the past few days every time anyone mentioned her new jacket and class ring. Maybe there's a story behind them.

Who is the girl who returned from a weekend at home with a jar of pickled pig's feet? When asked by her roommate if she thought they would spoil, Sharon replied, "No, I always smell feet before I eat 'em!"

There is a sure cure for influenza these days. If you think you are taking it be sure to consult Jimmy Blackwell immediately. Let her tell you how in three short hours you can feel like dancing all night.

A new society has recently been organized in Terrell B-C. Any one interested in the Secret Order of the C. O. W. see Sandy Ledford. Jackie Ricks, I hear you've become quite interested in the state of North Carolina. I didn't think you were taking geography this quarter. What's the reason for the interest?

Wonder if Nancy Rymer was ever told why she got a dozen red roses without a card from Atlanta? No birthday or anniversary either.

Seems like Sandersville boys have a monopoly on Jessie seniors. Carol Shiver, Bill Lewis, and Suetta Sims could confess.

Peggy Pitts has been in a fury these past few weeks. Planning a wedding, making a wedding dress and keeping up with studies is a big order, right? The special moment is next weekend, isn't it.

Number Of Flu Cases Precautions Are Urged On Campus Nov. 1-3

Sneezes, sniffles, colds and sore throats have hit this campus in full force. Nothing Asiatic has appeared as yet. Classes have met and weekend plans have gone on as usual. Nothing spectacular has occurred. Girls stay in the infirmary usually from 24 to 48 hours, then resume classwork.

Dean Barbara Chandler says "The situation is indeed improving, however, the reports fluctuate."

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation is looking forward to a very profitable year. Six or more students and two adult advisors will attend the 8th Quadrennial of the MSM at Lawrence, Kansas in December. Ten students and their director attended the Georgia MSM Conference in Atlanta October 25-27. Visitation of each Methodist preference student, Sunday evening programs and worship keep the group in touch with the church while on campus. By November 1st each Methodist preference student on the campus will be contacted and urged to come to Wesley Foundation and asked to make a pledge to the support of the group and the groups mission fund the MSFF.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The Physical Education Club met Friday, October 11. Betty Keaton was elected President for the current year. Following the meeting, Dr. Jacobs, Dr. Beiswanger, Miss Chapin, Miss McNeill and Mrs. Ireland served refreshments to the club members.

This year there are 39 Physical Education Majors in the Club—6 seniors, 10 juniors, 8 sophomores and 15 freshmen.

Thursday night at 8:45, a Circus Party, planned and presented by Daisy Hammett and Ann Weeks, was given for the Physical Education Club. Everyone had a very enjoyable time, especially in the Water Ballet, which was bobbing for apples. Ninety per cent of the members looked like they had just come from Penguin practice and the Gym looked like a lake!

BETA ALPHA

Beta Alpha had its first meeting of the year on October 24. The meeting was held in the Guest House Rec Hall. Virgie Sellers, President of Beta Alpha, was in charge of the program.

The highlight of the party was the initiation service. At that time new business students were accepted for membership in Beta Alpha. Among the new members were the following transfers: Delores Alligood, Wynette Baker, Shelia Dixon, Sara Dunson, Helen Holman, Maxine Kleckley, Jeanne Lewis, Myra Morris, Anne Parnell, Hazel Scroggs, Jo Ann Smith, and Ellen Whipple.

HOME ECONOMICS

Alice Batchelor from Blakely has been elected by the Clara Hasslock Home Economics Club to enter nominations for Georgia's candidate for National Home Economics Club second vice president. Alice is a junior home economics major and is president of the senior modern dance club on campus. Alice has held offices in home economics clubs on national, state and district level. A state nominee will be chosen from college nominees. This choice is made by a committee at Bessie Tift during fall workshop.

A delegation of club members will participate in the fall workshop at Tift College composed of Jane Bonner, Jan Blackwell, Pat Meeks, Frances Canady and Mae Patton, GHEA second vice president.

IRC

As a climax to United Nations week, International Relations Club presented a program consisting of speeches on the different departments of the United Nations and their functions in Parks 21, October 25. It was an interesting end to United Nations Week which has been celebrated campus-wide by posters, book displays, and a chapel program devoted to interviews with the IRC officers who attended the U. N. Institute this past summer.

IRC is happy to welcome the following new members:

Kathleen McDonald, Henrietta Moody, Patricia Groover, Mary Jones, Helen Thaxton, Jo Dunahoo, Anne Mallard, Mrs. Mazie Dillard, Polly Roberts, Alice Duke, June Allen, Ann Googe, Pat Meeks, Glenda Huff, Grace Jinnener, Vera Imlrie, Mrs. Quentin Lockwood, Mary Angela Pope and Betty Baldwin.

SAI NEWS

SAI held their annual pledge service Thursday October 10 at 8:00 in the Porter Fine Arts Building. The new pledges are Elizabeth Bridges, Latrell Gaff, Frances Garrard, Martha Sheffield, and Joyce Norris.

The pledges will give a pledge musicale Wednesday, October 30, at 3:00 p. m. in Porter Auditorium. Afterwards there will be a reception at the apartment of Miss Maribel Benton. The initiation ceremony will take place on Sunday, November 17.

ELEMENTARY ED

The American Children Education International, of which the local elementary educational club is a branch member, sponsored a tea October 29 in Peabody Library from 4:30 to 5:30 p. m. All faculty, freshmen and elementary education majors were invited to attend.

Mrs. Nan Ingram, the State Vice-president of ACEI, Mrs. Doty and all the officers of the club received the guests for the occasion. Punch and cookies were served.

The first regular meeting of the elementary club will be held on November 14. Mrs. Florence Songer, librarian at Baldwin High School will be the speaker.

A CAPELLA

The old and new music majors and faculty were entertained by a party in the Student Union on October 4. Among those present was Mr. Leon Harralson from New York City. Eating, dancing, and games were enjoyed by all.

A Capella was pleased to have Papa Noah back at rehearsal on October 16, following a recent illness.

Community Band Shows Progress

This is a report to let you know the MILLEDGEVILLE COMMUNITY BAND is off to a fine start this year!

As usual our Jessies have turned out with enthusiasm to play in the community band. Carol Fox, Mot Sheffield, Fay Parks, Dru Smith, and Jean Rutledge are back with the group again this year to spark the sax, clarinet, alto clarinet, percussion, and trumpet sections respectively.

Brand-new Jessies including Jimmie Blackwell, Janis Sanford, Carol Moss and Eleanor Garner have come out from the Freshmen ranks to add their talents to our growing Community Band. Jimmie and Janis play very capable clarinet and Carol has thrilled us by being the very first student to play GSCW's new $750.00 Moe-n-ing Bassoon! Eleanor is in a category all by herself. She plays viola and has volunteered to learn to play timpani.

Another new Jessie to join our community band—is Helen Wild. Miss Wild, GSCW's new instructor of French, keeps her music in the same language—she plays French Horn.

Mr. Arnot, the Band Director, giving a bird's eye view of the situation, says that this year's band shows promise of being the finest yet. The only thing keeping the group from being an all GSCW Band is the forty some-odd girls who haven't come out for band as yet. (The records reveal that there is at least a fifty piece band available on campus.) Arnot says, "Time will undoubtedly rectify this situation. The first hundred years are always the hardest in building up a new group and we have only ninety-six left to go."

A varied program schedule has been planned for this year. The Band will play three concerts on campus, one each quarter. Programs for the Milledgeville State Hospital, the Boys' Training School, and the Milledgeville Grammar Schools and High Schools are slated also. A conference with Michael Landy, owner and program director of WMVG revealed that a taped radio show is also possible this year. Second quarter is four time for the Band and a schedule of possible cities to be played is now being arranged.

Instrumental Classes, for those students who would like to learn how to play an instrument and then join the band, are available at no cost. All instruments and music plus instruction can be had by those students interested, also at no cost. (A minimum of five students will start the class. Those students beginning an instrument this quarter would be able to play sufficiently well to take part in the third quarter concert. Flute, clarinet, cornet or trumpet, trombone, baritone, and bass or sousaphone are the types of instruments available and needed in the band.) Contact Mr. Arnot at the Band Office in Porter Fine Arts or drop him a note in care of GSCW Box 606 if you are interested in the class.

Jessies Devote Evening To Annual Hike Picnic

Annual hike at GSCW went off as scheduled on October 31. Wonderful weather prevailed. Many students participated and it is speculated more would have had not mid-term test been in full swing.

The softball game was a friendly play between the seniors and faculty. The results was 8-3 in favor of the seniors. The faculty team didn't have enough players to begin; however, some showed up later.

Other events such as class skits, an outdoor picnic and a festive spirit set the stage.

Sara Bethel Announces Alumnae Loyalty Fund Progresses With Ease

The Alumnae Loyalty Fund has been launched and Miss Sara Bethel may be found at her desk opening stacks of letters containing checks. Miss Bethel says "I'm pleased with the way it is going."

Miss Bethel is making plans for the executive meeting in Perry to start planning for homecoming this weekend.

Y's OWL

You know, I certainly am learning a lot about our world these days. Every Friday when the Current Affairs study group meets I learn more and more. They discuss things as Sputnik, cosmic rays and other subjects of national and international importance. If you want to really learn something about world affairs be sure and come over to the Owl Cove next Friday night at 5:30 and join the others for supper and discussion.

Speaking of international affairs, don't forget the Scholarship barn dance next Saturday night. The proceeds from this dance help to sponsor our foreign student on campus. There will be several foreign students from other schools there, so be sure to come. Be seeing you.
